HERD AT REST

Introducing GELMAT DS – The New Standard in Cow Comfort

You know that, the more you keep your cows rested and comfortable, the more they produce for you. Which is why our engineers set out to make the best cow comfort solution ever developed.

The result: GELMAT DS.

The DS stands for Drop Stitch – making this gel-filled mattress not only the ultimate in comfort, but also the most durable solution you'll find. Your cows will not want to get off this smooth, supportive surface that contours to their bodies. And GELMAT DS is compatible with both free and tie stalls.

What's In It for Your Herd:

- Greater comfort
- Greater support
- Relief of pressure points
- Fewer hock sores
- A cleaner stall

What's In It For You:

- Performs like sand without the mess
- Less bedding required
- Easy to clean surface
- Less stall maintenance
- Reduced vet bills

Greater Comfort. Greater Durability. Less Work For You.

You want your herd to be at rest – more comfortable for longer periods. You want a solution that can last for years to come, reduce your labour time and expenses. In other words, you want GELMAT DS.
